STUMP ANNOUNCES LEADERSHIP OF HOUSE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE

House Armed Services Committee Chairman Bob Stump (R-AZ) today announced appointment of subcommittee chairmen for the 107th Congress.

The chairmen of the House Armed Services Committee are as follows:

Military Procurement Subcommittee – Rep. Floyd D. Spence (R-SC)
Military Research and Development Subcommittee – Rep. Duncan Hunter (R-CA)
Military Readiness Subcommittee – Rep. Curt Weldon (R-PA)
Military Installations and Facilities Subcommittee – Rep. Jim Saxton (R-NJ)
Military Personnel Subcommittee – Rep. John M. McHugh (R-NY)

“As we prepare to work with the Bush Administration on the important task of restoring our national security, we are particularly fortunate to be able to count on such a talented and experienced team to help lead the House of Representatives in this effort,” said Stump.

Stump also announced his decision to appoint four special oversight panels – the Special Oversight Panel on Merchant Marine, the Special Oversight Panel on Morale, Welfare, and Recreation, the Special Oversight Panel on Department of Energy Reorganization, and the Special Oversight Panel on Terrorism.
